

PRESS RELEASE

Integral appoints Gavin Bambury as Chief Technology Officer

Gavin Bambury, leading technologist at Ion Trading, Deutsche Bank and Citigroup, to expand Integral's leadership position in FX market

PALO ALTO, California (September 24, 2018) – Integral (www.integral.com), the technology partner trusted by leading banks, brokers, and asset managers to help them outperform their competition in the foreign exchange market, today announced the appointment of ex-ION Trading CEO Gavin Bambury as its Chief Technology Officer (CTO).

He brings more than two decades of trading and technology experience to his role at Integral. In addition to serving as both CEO and COO at ION Trading, Bambury has also held positions as global head of business re-engineering at Deutsche Bank and CTO of Fixed Income, Currency and Commodities (FICC) at Citigroup. Bambury will work in tandem with the Integral executive team to cement the firm's position as the industry's leading cloud-based eFX platform.

Commenting on his hire, Bambury said, "It is fantastic to be part of such an innovative company at the heart of the institutional FX market. As Integral continues to lead the way, I will look to provide a key strategic role in extending Integral's lead in FX solutions for market participants."

Harpal Sandhu, CEO of Integral, added: "Gavin is an amazingly talented designer, technologist and leader. I look forward to sharing our experiences of developing transformative products and working together to create the next generation of leading services for the FX market."

About Integral

Integral is a financial technology company that helps its customers—banks, brokers, and asset managers—outperform their competition in the foreign exchange market through innovative solutions for workflow management and advanced execution. This powerful cloud-based platform is the industry's only answer for FX institutions that want to design and deliver complete solutions tailored to their businesses. Integral's modern approach of addressing the entire FX lifecycle with an intelligent platform allows its customers to achieve the lowest transaction costs, greatest operational efficiency, and highest yield. Founded in 1993, Integral maintains development, support, and sales offices in Palo Alto, New York, London, Tokyo, Singapore and Bangalore.
