Integral's average daily volumes grow to $38.8 billion in May

PALO ALTO, California (June 4, 2018) – Integral (www.integral.com), the technology partner trusted by leading banks, brokers, and asset managers to help them outperform their competition in the foreign exchange market, reported today consolidated FX average daily volumes (ADV) across Integral platforms totaled $38.8 billion in May 2018. This volume is more than 10% greater than April 2018 and reflects single count trading volumes originating from BankFX™, MarginFX™, InvestorFX™, and Integral MTF™ in all transaction types, including spot, forwards, and swaps.

No other platform reaches as many, as varied, and as comprehensive a set of FX products and participants as OCX. Banks brokers and asset managers now share direct access to OCX for disclosed, undisclosed and order-book trading.

“The strong growth in daily volumes continued in May as our customers took advantage of the deep and diverse liquidity in our network,” said Harpal Sandhu, CEO of Integral.

OCX is directly cross connected with more than 250 liquidity sources supplying more than 3,000 market making streams in NY4, LD4, and TY3. OCX's award-winning advanced market design delivers the ultimate in execution performance by combining resting limit orders, market-making streams, and midpoint interest in a single integrated high-performance venue.
